Pitch and putt

Belting a ball is all well and good but, if you've got no touch around the greens, you won't stand a chance.

A quick press of B lets you play an Approach shot. Now you'll punch the ball, so it stays low to the ground and rolls further. On the green, look at the contours to read the putting surface. They slope in different directions, so aim your putt carefully or the ball will roll away from the hole. Also hitting up hill will need more power if you're to sink it in the cup.

▲ It's a really great chip and it's gonna land near the pin.

▲ Touch around the green is essential if you're to win.

SOUNDS Very realistic sounds. The ball on metal is just like the real thing and the players talk, too. Even the music's cool.

Out on the course

Mario Golf's got some gorgeous looking places you can play.

You'll have to battle through sun, wind and rain if you're to win and earn bonus points. If you do really well, you may even unlock the hidden courses. Here's what you can look forward to...

Toad Highlands

Best bit Loadsa large flat greens and long open fairways will help you score tons of Birdies. An easy introduction for all golfing nuts. Worst bit The weather changes a lot and high winds can send your ball all over the place.

Koopa Park

Best bit Like Toad Highlands, there are loadsa holes where you can get some excellent drives off the tee. Don't waste your opportunities. Worst bit There are several water hazards on this course, so your hitting needs to be top notch.

As you play round each crazy course, keep an eye out for Boo the Ghost who gives you the direction and speed of the wind.

If you wanna know the pin position from where you're standing, Lakitu will offer you loadsa camera angles. Also hitting the bail out of bounds'il see Toad appear on screen waving his ickle flag. Cooli

Shy Guy Desert

Best bit The lack of wind makes it ideal for driving the ball straight down the middle. Just remember that your ball will roll further on the hard surface. Worst bit Ther are tons of sand traps, so aim well or ver sand wedge will be working overtime.

Yoshi's Island

Best bit Hole seven's excellent. You must hit across the river to reach the green. Several holes force you to chip from fairway to fairway. Miss and you're in the drink. Worst bit Try to Ignore Donkey Kong's yelps from the nearby trees, or it could be a very long round indeed.

Hazards aplenty

There are more than enough pitfalls to stump even the best golf pros.

Every hole has bunkers, and watch out for the occasional water hazard. Also, you wanna make sure you hit straight. Drift out of bounds and Toad

The later courses will also have you storming out of the room if you stray from the fairways. Find the rough and you'll struggle to make par.

▲ Looks good from the tee, but troubles are up ahead

Old Wario's bound to cheat his way to victory.

ONE PLAYER The one player game is a great laugh. There are loadsa challenges and you won't stop playing 'til you have all the hidden characters.

MULTIPLAYER Get all your mates round and swing away. Much more fun than real golf and it's a lot cheaper, too.

The Mini Golf game is fun, but much tougher than it looks. Even this short nutt can cause a few headaches.

A Thwack! Luigi tries to hit his golf ball through the floating gold rings. He's done it. Now sink your ball and move on.

Mario Golf is great.

Be a cat and catch the rats in this lil' action gem.

SOUNDS The cute sound effects and tunes are really top notch.

WE SAID "Forget Tom and Jerry, Rat Attack's the only cat 'n' mouse action you'll ever need."

A That square on the ground is the Eraticator. Drag it across the floor and catch all the rats who are standing inside. When a rat hits one of the Scratchies, your feline hero will drop all the rats they've just caught. What a bummer.

Catch those rats

ey, listen up! The world's under attack from mutant space rats, and you've gotta help the Scratch Cats stop 'em.
Use traps and power ups to catch 'em all and end their evil plans.

▲ See the letter 'E'? If you collect five letters, you'll be given hidden power ups.

It must stop before you can dump rats.

The Scratch Cats

There are seven crazy felines in Rat Attack. Before you go into the action, take a look at each furball 'cos each one's got their own strengths, ranging from speed to the size of their rat catcher, the Eraticator,

Ninja style Hai Jinx is a good all round cat

Silky Sparky's a super fast feline. If you need to catch rats in a hurry, ol' Sparky's an ideal choice.

The cartoon levels and cats look cool, but it's let down by poor camera angles.

A If the rats step on this blue disc, they double in number!

Aim of the game

To get hold of the rats you need to snare them with your Eraticator.

Just drag it round the ones you wanna catch and you'll pick 'em up. Now dump 'em in the orange Destructor for mega points.

Get as many as you can collected some, dump 'em in the Destructor

GAME LENGTH Rat catchin' is tricky but, once mastered, the game's a good laugh. Multiplayer battles are confusing, though,

Nintendo' GAME SCORE

Rat Attack's a smart idea. The graphics and music are good, but you'll need patience to fight rough the fast 'n' furious levels. The game's not a classic but. if you're after an inal game, ve it a go.

The New Tetris is okay, but this ould've been so much better. Although the one player mode's good, it's let down by a very average multiplayer option. If you're a huge fan, get it. If not,

Mutant aliens are taking over the planet and only you can stop 'em in their tracks. Better grab your sharp shooter and save the day... WE SAID "Hybrid

Heaven looks great, and it's easy to get lost in the amazing plot."

LOOKS The levels are very creepy and meeting the different aliens will turn your hair white.

The aliens have landed

f you love X Files and you want a sci-fi action adventure to sink your teeth into, then feast your eyes on Hybrid Heaven.

This takes place below the streets of New York. Aliens are about to unleash a plan to replace the US

A The fight scenes are really ace in Hybrid Heaven.

President with one of their own kind. You've gotta solve puzzles and battle the alien scum in this race against time adventure. With tons of monsters to bump off and exploring to be done, you've got your work cut out. Go get 'em cowboy...

▲ Use your trusty sidearm to blow those pesky 'bots away.

The plot thickens

Hybrid Heaven puts you in the shoes of Diaz, one of the alien clones' top men. A change of heart prompts you to kill an alien called Johnny Slater, who's acting as a government insider.

You now decide to save the President before the aliens can replace him with a clone. Your mission starts inside an underground den. You must explore the tunnels 'til you find those responsible, and foil the plot before it's too late.

The sinister looking man's told Johnny about their plans to take over the government

As you explore the alien base, you'll meet some gruesome monsters that wanna eat ya. Look out, that filthy beast's got razor sharp blades with your name on 'em.

wn in the underground, Diaz confronts Johnny...

... and wipes him out with a single bullet.

▲ The agent put up a fight, but Diaz is too strong

Beat your foes

Whenever an enemy steps into your path, you enter a turn based battle arena.

Not only can you use punches 'n' kicks, but also guns that you've picked up and defence moves too.

A You can only choose a left or right ▲ Decide whether to hit 'im with a knuckle sandwich or a kick to the head. kick. You'll get more as you progress.

Make sure you defend yourself with a side step to dodge their attacks or hit 'en with a counter move. Diaz can even bring up his guard to protect himself.

SOUNDS With its cool speech and realistic effects, Hybrid Heaven comes to life. Your gun sounds like a pea shooter, though.

Muscle man

As you make your way through the hybrids' HQ, you can turn Diaz into the ultimate fighting warrior.

By using a different part of his body, you'll boost its strength until he's a rock ard fighting machine. Also, by blocking moves, you can build up your body.

can put up your arms to block their attacks. If it's a successful move, the strength will increase one level. At the end of each fight you'll be given a run down on all your improvements. Use 'em next time.

Watch your health

During each fight, keep an eye out for the bars that appear on screen. They display each fighter's strength and the number of hit points you get when you start punching each other's lights out. Let's take a closer peak at what you'll see...

This alters the strength of your attack. When it's full you'll send 'em sprawling with some ace moves.

This affects the power of Diaz's throwing moves. The lower it is, the less punishment you'll dish out. It's important you keep this up.

Hit points

This is your energy meter. Keep it above zero. If it hits rock bottom, you'll be dead 'n' buried.

GAME LENGTH This is hard going and avoiding death is difficult at first, especially with the annoying camera angles.

Hybrid Heaven's a neat idea and the creepy levels make this fun to play, However, the annoying camera angles and character movement let this down. A go attempt, but this adventure's not a '64 classic.

When you were captured by the aliens they stripped you of all your weapons. You'll need to use special tactics here.

Lizard men: They are the weakest baddies so use the Pistol you find at the start. They'll be dead in no time

You may think you can run past the aliens to save ammo, but you can't. They'll chase you down and kill you.

flying robot auns: They're in the sky and use rapid fire SMGs. They're hard to spot so as soon as you find one, let rip with your trusty lil'SMG.

A Pig Cops: They take a few more hits and you'll lose health if you use the pistol. Blast 'em with the Shotgun.

Dynamite throwers: This has a wide blast radius, so it's best to run for cover when you see 'em. Now use Shotgun.

A Snipers: When you see one, duck, Switch to Sniper and play peek a boo.

Find help to escape

You'll need the help of the two female sheriffs to open some of the doors with two levers.

Just don't get too close as these chicks don't take kindly to men checkin' 'em out and they'll probably give you a good slap.

Exit cell, up corridor, thru metal door and take a right. Up path, right. Don't touch red alarm!

Sniper in second cell, babe in third, second sheriff in last cell. Follow again through door.

Find way to break out

You've freed the other prisoners, but you've still got to get out yourself. The bad guys aren't gonna let you go so easily and their evil plan is in place. Quit messin' around and get your skates on. Otherwise, it'll be Game Over.

Secret area to left with tunnels leading. to more rooms. Right of stream is a secret area on ledge. Stream leads to babes.

Exit through tunnel in water to Watchtower. Under arch on right, to second corridor, follow around.

Back to arch and open East Wing. Take out the snipers, but watch out for their return fire. Up on ledge for the South Wing key. Exit, turn left and open South Wing.

A Don't let Lizard activate the security system. Head straight to the watchtower with North Wing key. Exit to the left. Now

A Babe in second cell on right and third left. Exit third door on right. Follow cave to cliff. Drop into water, babe on left. Now exit to the right.

Duke's Gun Slingin' Tip

You start this level without a gun and there aren't many enemies around at first. Accurate shooting is the key.

Up Ship Creek

The Cyborg Soldiers are coming!

The alien invaders have taken a paddle boat as their Cyborg Soldier factory. A weird choice, but it might just work...

It's also heavily guarded and you'll have to face the Cyborgs too.

Board ship

The ship is your target, but it's being defended by gun turrets and BMF Cannons. Phew, there's no peace for the wicked...

You must deactivate the security system before you can enter the ship.

▲ Go left across ledge to cave, Follow round to teleporter and shut down security system. Okay, you're on your way.

Use teleporter to left for ship entrance. Secret area behind paddles on left. Sniper on ledge to right. Enter ship.

Level 1 Pass

To complete and get through this level, you'll need to find a number of passes. And you know that ain't gonna be easy.

They look like ickle circuit boards and, of course, they're really hard to find.

▲ To corridor opposite force field. Kill sniper. To other end, up ladder, Right ledge has backstage key.

Back into theatre. Lift curtain for secret area. Get babe and Health. Opposite balcony has level 1 pass.

Level 2 Pass

You've found the first pass, so you know you must look everywhere. This one's hidden in an experimentation facility with loads a real scary stuff.

A Return to force field. Open and go thru door in between teleporter. Follow to the right to face your first Cyborg, Make sure you take 'im out. Now go to the energy restorer.

Last two passes

Now you'll have to deactivate shields, enter casinos and other really hard stuff. You'll wish you'd stayed in bed.

If you thought the first two passes drove you mad, you're in for a real shock. Don't give up soldier! Get through this section and you should be able to deal with any problems those pesky aliens put your way.

Walk down path between the teleporters, Babe room on left, Gas Mask room on right. Open force field which can be located round the corner.

the level

Back to the

Duke's Gun Slingin' Tip

Cyborgs are tough and you'll need some heavy duty guns to take 'em out. Sniper rifle's yer best choice.

Fort Roswell

The desert wastelands of the wild west

Fort Roswell has been captured by the alien invaders, who're now looking for a new base. Don't they ever give up...?

You need to get in and find the bomb they're gonna use to blow up the Earth. There's no time to waste.

Get to fort

The alien menace ain't gonna let you get to the fort without a fight. It's fortunate you're more than capable of finishing the job.

This time they've brought out the big guns. Try to avoid the cannons and boulders as you head for the fort.

Exit the cave and turn right. Stand behind huge rock to the right to avoid first boulder as it crashes down from above. Keep to right to avoid second.

Kill Custer

General Custer who was in charge of the fort has defected to the side of the aliens, Bloomin' coward!

Your mission is very straightforward. Simply kill this traitor and hang his ugly head on your mantlepiece. It'll make the perfect souvenir.

Custer is strong, so strafe as much as possible. Don't forget to keep an eye on his guns!

This dirty of traitor can't fire while he's being hit by your weapons. Use your rapid firing guns like the Gamma Cannon. He won't be able to do a single thing about it.

Survive the fort

The fort is littered with booby traps such as bear snags and trip wires waiting to catch you out.

Dynamite throwin' nasties and barrels of gun powder'll give you grief.

door. Jump wire and flames, Kill sniper, blow gun powder. Door open to secret area. Armour inside. Right to babe. Back to ladder, go up.

door, up slope, right door. To yard, exit left by barrel. Tower key near gun turret.

Open guard tower door. Take right door to walkway. another tower with switch opens door next to the gun turret. Walk through it. Another level bites the dust. You're too good.

Duke's Gun Slingin' Tip

Enemies in this level are strong and accurate shooters. Use rifles and claws to make em vulture feed.

Probing the Depths

Chase the bomb through the old mines

The aliens are sending the bomb down to the centre of the Earth and only you can stop them.

You've gotta be quick. There's only ten minutes to defuse the bomb.

Centre of the Earth

First you'll need some transport. Use the carts that speed around the abandoned mine. Watch out for the aliens guarding the track.

blow up to reveal secret area. Jump to ledge, get in cart. Ride, shoot the enemies and try to avoid all the obstacles.

▲ Wait 'til cart stops. water pump to right, exit door. Through passage right, lump to switch to turn cart around. Babe on left.

right ledge, dimb ladder, avoid cart

falling, find Time Machine nart Dron down to lava cavern, get in cart. Keep on your trigger. There are dangers ahead.

Deeper underground

You've gotten far, but the clock is still ticking away. Get yer running shoes on or you won't finish the level.

Things are hotting up. Lava pits and sinking platforms are all over the place.

Climb into the cart. Lizard following you early on and cart with bomb will go past on your right. At large slope don't jump, just hold .

The last lea

The bomb is just around the corner. The clock continues to tick and this is the time to make that final push for the finish line. Use the Gamma Cannon if possible, there are three ducking points and energy on the way. Keep your wits and you'll reach the exit.

Duke's Gun Slingin' Tip

Don't worry about dying. You'll get to know the level bit by bit and discover the location of the enemies-

Cyborg Scorpion

Last chance to stop the alien plan

This larger than life robot has much more than a sting in its tail... like two hoooge guns for starters.

This jumped up insect needs a lot of bug spray and a coupla' hundred bullets if you're to send him packing.

First keep movin' to avoid its Gamma Cannon and Multilauncher fire. Keep circling him by pressing @ or @ and lean a little on the 3D Stick.

A It's always on the move, so the pincers ▲ The most dangerous part of Cyborg Scorpion are his pincers. Aim at 'em with are never in one place. Don't just shoot as you'll run outta ammo and die pathetically. Gamma Cannon and Gatling Gun.

Try your best to keep out of the lava. There are doctors' bags and energy all around the edges

Once he's lost his pincers get ver Gatling Gun, aim at front red blotch and finish 'im.

"Goldeneye's excellent, but by the look of Perfect Dark, James Bond'll be running home to his Mummy. It will be the best shoot 'em up this century." Stephen Lombe, Sligo.

■ Goldeneye's a classic, but Perfect Dark is looking very special indeed. We can't wait! Dave

■ Don't forget Jet Force Gemini. We'll definitely have it next month, so order your copy of NOM now. Tim

Power Pack

Wrestling games on the N64 are a top laff and one of its biggest fans is Rajinder Kumar from Birmingham. He's gone mad with his crayons and has created this great WWF Attitude box.

Who's The Hero

Guess this cool Nintendo superstar from the five clues that're dotted around Club Mario. It's a toughie, but see if you can get it. Let's go... Clue 1 "m a cheeky cartoon character.

"I read your magazine when I wasn't sure whether to get Zelda. As you gave it 97% I bought it and it's incredible. Thanks NOM!" Som Murphy, Norton Lindsey, Warwick.

Glad to be of service, Sam. We always complete each game to make sure our scores are spot on. Zelda's well worth 97%. Tim

"I'm really annoyed with the makers of Superman. What a wastel I'd been looking forward to it for ages, but when you gave it 49% I was really disappointed. Shame on them."

Lee Webb Bournemouth, Dorset

We had high hopes for Superman, but it was pants. It's nearly as bad as Clayfighter 63 1/3! Dave Keep 'em peeled for Spiderman when it swings onto your N64 next year.
Let's hope it's tons better than Superman. Fingers crossed, eh? Tim

"Rare's best ever game is definitely Goldeneye. The graphics are cool and the playability is astounding. It's the best shoot 'em up ever." Robert Brown, Leigh, Lancs.

If you haven't got Goldeneye, it's now part of the Player's Choice range. For £30, you'll be in 007 heaven. Tim

"What's happened to the N64's beat 'em ups? Mortal Kombat 4 was a great game, but the latest fight fests are rubbish."

"I got Pokémon Red and Blue from America and, even though I haven't completed them, they're two of the biggest and best games ever. I can't wait for the other Pokémon titles to come out." Phillio Bern. Sevenooks. Kent.

■ Pokémon's really addictive and you won't stop playing 'til you've caught all 150 monsters. I've only got six Pokémon left to find. Dave

Brain Strain

Are you a Brain of Britain when it comes to anything Nintendo? Have a pop at these tough quessies and see if you're a true Nintendoid.

- Tim Spencer, Abingdon, Oxon.

   What d'ya mean? The N64's got some top four player blasts. Look out for Jet Force Gemini's cooperative mode, it's gonna be quality. Tim
- Get a Game Boy and try Pokémon. Battling your mates is great fun. You'll be at it all day and night. Dave

Dresses for Success

This fella'll leave Ganondorf quaking in his boots. Graeme Hamilton from Fife loves Link so mearless warrior. Graeme's been saving hard for an N64

 Better graphics New Link Adventure Amazing puzzles

t's only been a few months since Link defeated the evil Ganondorf, but the land of Hyrule's in trouble... again!

While riding Epona deep in the forest, young Link is attacked by a Skull Kid wearing a strange mask. The Kid steals Epona, and flees through a door to another dimension.

Brave Link follows the Skull Kid and finds himself in a warped version of Hyrule, where many of the people and places are the same. This time the moon's about to fall on Hyrule, and it's up to Link to save his world.

The graphics are loads better this time as the game uses the N64 Expansion Pak.

▼ This is the clock tower. It counts down constantly, towards the moment when the oon will crash down on Hyrule, Don't let that happen

The masked avenuer

The big news about Link's new adventure is that our hero can change into different creatures by wearing masks. Link can wear Goron, Zora and Deku Scrub masks, giving him new powers to tackle even tougher puzzles and wacky sub games tougner puzzies and wacky sub games.

Our hero can attach the masks to the

Mini aames aalore

There are loads more mini games to try in this Zelda adventure, which give you a fun break from the RPG action.

In one scene, Link has to race Epona against two different versions of farm hand Ingo down a dusty, riverside road,

In another, Zora Link is challenged to a race by two comedy beavers, and he has to weave his way down a fast flowing river.

Our fave mini game is the Goron racing, where our hero curls into a ball and races other rock eating beasts down a steep slope.

month 'cos we'll have loads mare on this new Zelda adventure, and an exclusive interview with Link's creator, Nintendo's Shigeru Miyamoto.

We think...

We played this new version at Nintendo's Space World show and it rocks. The masks are a great laugh, and the graphics are superb. The best just got better.

 Link's also returning in THREE new Game Boy new Game Boy Color adventures.

The games are called The Hyrule Fantasy, Fruit of the Mysterious Tree and The Tale of Power. and they all work togetherl When you complete one of the games, use Link Cables and attach it to the next instalment and it'll affect how the new game plays! Again, stay tuned and we'll bring you more details next month.

 Mario's gonna grow up for his next big adventure. Yep, you heard it right. Games guru, Shigeru Miyamoto, believes that Mario's a little too childish for the new machine. Luigi is also gonna go through some changes when Nintendo's new console comes out at the end of next year. Mazza's infamous two fingered salute is just one of the things that's gonna be updated.

• The ultimate retro classic has been revamped for the year 2000. Space Invaders is gonna take the '64 by storm this winter and it's been given a cool facelift. Still expect wave upon wave of aliens to attack, but the new version'll hopefully include a few surprises and bonus levels.

Pokémon is bigger than Star Wars, The Phantom Menace. Fact!
Our American contacts have informed us that Pikachu is outselling the evil Darth Maul three to one. The new Pokémon toys have just started arriving into the UK, and early signs show it's gonna be as big over here.

• The crazy, leepin' lizard is back to save the day. The lovable, wise crackin' Gex is coming to Game Boy Color in a brand new adventure. The game boasts 15 unique levels and loadsa cool sub games which can be found on your travels. Gex can also choose from nine costumes which he must use if he's to reach the end.

The game's a remake of the ancient arcade classic but this time it's in stuming 3D. A sorcere summoned the gruesome demon Storne, but his power proved too much and the devil's broken free. Now he controls the four Realms and it's your job to choose a flighter and slice in dice your way through horders of nasties.

Before you start hackin' and slashin' your way to Skorne, you've gotta choose your rough 'n' ready fighter.

There are four characters including a Warrior, Archer, Wizard and Valkyrie. They're all hard as nails, so you can't make a poor choice. Each one has different levels of magic.

speed, strength and armour, so pick wisely before you go out on your mission or you could come to an early end. You can even change the colour of their clothes, too.

The wizard can fry 'em with fireballs straight from his staff.

His magic powers are the best in the game, so the Wizard's perfect for beginners

The warrior's the strongest character in the game, but his magic powers aren't too hot.

If brutal battles are your thing, he's your man.

Archer

The archer's weak, but her bow and arrow can wipe out nasties in a flash. Her quick speed is great for dodging attacks

Valkyrie

Valkyrie's the best all rounder and her moves are lightning fast. Blink, and you could be cut in two.

▲ Donkey Kong will have to get a move on if he's gonna get away from those nasty mine carts.

DK must leap from rail to rail to escape the evil skull carts. Diddy 'n' Lanky must lean over the sides of their carts to grab DK coins.

▲ Chunky must get 70 coins to get the gold bar He's got a long way to go, but we're sure he'll do it.

▲ There are loadsa new moves in DK64 and the jet pack is really cool. Diddy's armed himself with a couple of guns.

▲ Donkey Kong's ability to pound the ground will wipe out all the surrounding enemies. Smack'em, DK!
